

MEDIA ALERT

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 29, 2007

HYNES OPEN TO PUBLIC FOR NEWEST MCCA ART EXHIBITION

What: As part of its community art program, the MCCA will unveil its latest exhibition in an “open to the public” reception at the Hynes Convention Center. The exhibit, which features the work of local photographer Joe Bankowski, will be on display until January 15th. The rotating exhibition series is the foundation of the art program and a catalyst for raising cultural awareness and local support for the art community throughout the state.

Joe Bankowski, a lifetime resident of Boston, is currently exhibiting 24 photographs at the Hynes. A 30-plus year veteran of the law enforcement community, his skills and talents as a photographer are self-taught. Bankowski shoots his images exclusively in digital and develops creative ways to capture both natural and man-made wonders in a way that makes the ordinary look extraordinary.

When: Wednesday, November 7th
6:00 p.m. – 7:30 p.m.

Where: John B. Hynes Veterans Memorial Convention Center
Rotunda Gallery
900 Boylston Street
Boston, MA
